

To whom it may concern,

I have known and worked with Pavel Alexandrov for more than four years as a fellow horseman and in a teaching environment. In this time I have observed Pavel as he has trained problem horses and riders.

Pavel shows a deep understanding of and empathy for horses and pays attention to detail and his environment ensuring the safety of both the horses and people he is working with.

Pavel has backed a young horse for me and continues to help me with horses as I need him. I recommend him with confidence to anyone who needs his services.
